

CHARACTER PROFILES

Selected character studies exploring motivation, conflict, narrative function and voice design.

JOHN

Basic Information

Name	John
Role	Main character

Psychological Profile

Core Traits	• Hesitant • Introspective • Self-critical • Conflict avoidant
Internal Aim	Learn to act despite fear and uncertainty.
External Aim	***
Fatal Flaw	Fear of consequences and self-doubt.
Ghost	***
Backstory	***

Voice Pattern

Tone	• Introspective • Occasionally self-deprecating in personal matters.
Speaking Style	• Frequent pauses • Short sentences under stress • Tendency to overthink aloud
Narrative	Ordinary individual placed in situations beyond his understanding.

NICOLA

Basic Information

Name	Nicola
Role	Antagonist

Psychological Profile

Core Traits	• Calculated • Persuasive • Protective • Controlling
Internal Aim	Attempt to improve a broken system while maintaining personal control over events.
External Aim	***
Fatal Flaw	Belief that he alone can decide what is necessary for others.
Ghost	Unresolved anger connected to perceived injustice.
Backstory	***

Voice Pattern

Tone	Calm Measured Controlled
Speaking Style	Precise language Structured sentences Selective answers
Narrative	Morally driven figure whose desire to help gradually becomes a need to control.

 These excerpts have been heavily edited for portfolio purposes. Confidential story details and production-sensitive material have been omitted. Character relationships, narrative context and project-specific elements have been intentionally reduced to preserve confidentiality. ***